DESCRIPTION

The CrewSafe® Utility Knife ("XSCU Knife") is a completely disposable utility knife developed for the food service and food processing industries. The blade never needs to be handled or changed. The entire knife is disposed of or recycled back to Spellbound when the blade dulls.

Goal: Minimize all loose razor blades and the issues related to loose blades in the workplace. These issues include: product batch contamination from blades ending up in food and food type products served to consumers; lacerations from handling blades; broken and parts of blade pieces ending up in consumable products sold by the end users.
